

THE STORY CONTINUES

Through its museum exhibits, the German-American Cultural Center interprets the contributions that people of Germanic descent have made to the Lower Mississippi River Delta and the unique cultural mix that is New Orleans.

HOW TO GET HERE

In New Orleans, take Business US 90 over the Mississippi River. Go 2 miles and take the Lafayette Street exit. Travel on the service road for 2 blocks and then turn right onto Huey P. Long Avenue. The Center is at 519 Huey P. Long, between Fifth and Sixth streets. Look for the German and U.S. flags at the entrance!
